

Congratulations

*Washington Prodigy Women's Tackle Football Team
2017 United States Women's Football League Champions*

November 5, 2017

As Mayor of Washington, DC, I am pleased to congratulate the Washington Prodigy Women's Tackle Football Team as the 2017 Champions of the United States Women's Football League.

This celebration is a significant victory in the history of this organization and a wonderful accomplishment for each of you individually and collectively. The self-discipline, dedication, and teamwork displayed on and off the field helped to make this dream a reality.

As you celebrate your success and prepare for the upcoming season, I wish you all the best.

I join the residents of Washington, DC, in congratulating you on such a great accomplishment and for a job well done!

Muriel Bowser
Mayor, District of Columbia
